The AWP Difference...

With lots of decisions to make for your wedding we put together the following points to help our potential couples understand what is different about Amy Wellenkamp Photographers and our system for how we consistently achieve the style of photos on our web site and blog

YOUR STORY...YOUR STYLE

Our inspiration for your photos comes in lots of forms, from what you like to do together, how you met, where you spend your leisure time, your favorite colors, etc.

After meeting and booking with Amy Wellenkamp Photographers you will receive our Style Discovery Q&A. This questionnaire is fun and helps Amy learn about each of you as individuals and as a couple. This will help us work together to determine your photography style and what we will focus on for your engagement session and wedding day.

ENGAGEMENT SESSION

During the engagement session Amy learns what makes you relax and act naturally so we can be more creative and get even more amazing photos at your wedding. We are so passionate about how important engagement sessions are that we include them in every package.

PLANNING

Amy will visit your wedding venue ahead of time to see where the sun will be and what interesting architecture and natural elements can be used in your photos. She will also pre-plan the formal shots to keep the day moving along quickly to allow more time for the celebration.

DETAILS

You spend months planning the details for your wedding and they need to be thoughtfully captured. Amy and her team arrive early to photograph your details. Amy's past experience as Art Director for a national advertising agency has equipped her to work quickly capturing these details with artistic quality to enhance your album with the striking details.

MULTIPLE PHOTOGRAPHERS

All of our wedding packages include at least two photographers, with Amy as the primary shooter. We've made this commitment because it is best for our couples.

With two photographers, we capture more during the ceremony and are still able to be discreet. Also, we're able to be in two places at the same time: while Amy is working with the bride getting ready, the second professional photographer is able to work with the groom and the guys.
